WHITE CREST FLOUR

In the opinion of Louisville house-keepers the perfect flour is the White Crest, of which Edward M. Reiding is the wholesale distributor at 727 East Market street. This flour requires less shortening than other brands and is therefore far more economical. It is made from pure soft wheat by the J. G. Lysle Milling Co., Leavenworth Kan., and since being placed on the market it has become a favorite brand which is in constant demand and can be had at all retail grocery stores. Wherever this flour has been tried it has proved a success, and all who wish beautiful bread, light, nutritious and economical, should not fail to ask for and use White Crest Flour.

LITTLE WORLD SERIES.

The baseball fans of Louisville and the surrounding vicinity will get an opportunity to see a little world's series next week when Baltimore, winner of the International League pennant three years straight, will meet our Colonels, the American Association champions. The Baltimore club has been considered equally as good as any of the clubs in the major leagues and last season surprised everyone by defeating St. Paul five out of six games, and fans in this section know that St. Paul last season ran away with the pennant in the Association, outclassing the field. Good baseball judges here believe that Manager Joe McCarthy's Colonels will prove a surprise, as the never-say-die spirit of the local team won out over Kansas City and Minneapolis and their formidable lineups. And the coming series will give local baseball followers a chance to show their appreciation, as the players share in the first four games. Milwaukee closes the regular season with a double-header tomorrow.

SPLENDID PROGRESS.

Lebanon Council, Knights of Columbus, at the last meeting elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: R. L. Spaulding, Grand Knight; Charles L. Hunter, Deputy Grand Knight; H. W. Rives, Financial and Recording Secretary; G. J. Chandler, Treasurer; Charles M. Clark, Chancellor; Sam J. Moore, Warden; Charles C. Boldrick, Advocate; Ernest Thomas, Inside Guard; Percy Jones, Outside Guard; Joseph W. Kearns, Trustee; Joseph Beaven, Historian. The council has made splendid progress the past year. It has a large membership and is generally recognized as one of the most progressive in the State.

PRIEST'S MILITARY FUNERAL.

More than two hundred and fifty clergymen, including a dozen army chaplains, attended the services held in Sacred Heart church, Holyoke Mass., when final honors were paid to the Rev. William F. Devitt, chaplain of the 125th infantry of the Thirty-second Division, said to have been the last American officer killed in the World War. The Pontifical high mass of requiem was sung by the Right Rev. Thomas M. O'Leary, of Springfield. The Right Rev. Monsignor George J. Waring, of New York, Catholic Vicar General of army and navy chaplains, also attended. The military funeral was the largest ever held in that section of the State.
